

Function	Description
DVAR	Calculates the variance of all values in a field that match the search criteria. The values are treated as a sample.
DVARP	Calculates the variance of all values in a field that match the search criteria. The values are treated as an entire population.